The College

Walla Walla Community College has rapidly grown from 850 students in 1967 to a present annual enrollment of over 12,000. Located on approximately 100 acres, the Walla Walla campus has justifiably become an educational and cultural center for Southeastern Washington.

Extending facilities and programs throughout its four-county district, Walla Walla Community College’s Clarkston campus, located in Clarkston, Washington, is the hub of educational activity in Asotin and Garfield counties. Over 1300 full- and part-time students are enrolled annually. Persons interested in knowing more about the Clarkston campus should visit at: 1470 Bridge Street, Clarkston, Washington, or call 509.758.3339 (toll-free 1.877.471.6629). Mailing address: Clarkston Center, P.O. Box 700, Clarkston, WA 99403.

Walla Walla Community College also provides educational programs and services to offenders of the Washington State Penitentiary and Coyote Ridge Corrections Center. Qualified offenders are eligible to apply for admission to developmental courses, as well as workforce programs and an AA degree. The College also provides student services in the areas of admissions, advisement and registration, counseling, testing, GED testing, and placement.

Vision and Values of the College

Vision

Walla Walla Community College will be one of the most innovative, professional and successful service-oriented, rural community colleges in the United States based on its performance in meeting student needs and public expectations.

Values

We, the Board of Trustees and Walla Walla Community College employees, value:

Learning Opportunities. We value learning and encourage students to acquire a rich and wide body of knowledge as well as a love of their chosen discipline. We provide an environment that fosters active learning and the support services necessary to help all students achieve their potential. Everything we do is focused on expanding student access, retention, and completion.

Integrity. Integrity is an essential component of the common bond within Walla Walla Community College. Efficient accomplishment of institutional goals is based on trust and mutual respect. We value honesty, fairness and ethical behavior.

Sense of Community. We strive to build community. We value a climate where all individuals feel accepted and meaningfully involved in a common cause. We recognize we are interdependent and demonstrate respect for one another.

Teamwork. We value partnerships within the College and with members of the communities we serve. We practice collaboration in plans, actions, and shared results.

Diversity. We oppose all barriers that separate people from opportunities: barriers of socioeconomic status, color, ethnicity, age, gender, sexual orientation, and inexperience with the educational system. We embrace cultural diversity on our campus and in the communities we serve and strive to reflect the global community in our curricula. We seek to attract and nurture a diverse student body, faculty, and staff.

Innovation. Walla Walla Community College values, respects, and rewards the enthusiastic pursuit of new ideas, creative risk-taking, and entrepreneurial endeavors. Encouraging the pursuit of excellence and innovation will help the College prepare students and staff to shape the future. Creativity is one of our most important resources in the 21st Century.

Health and Humor. We value a healthy environment that encourages humor, creativity, and enjoyment of work. We promote health, wellness, and safety within the College and the communities we serve.

Personal and Professional Growth. We value the growth of both our students and staff. We believe that our own engagement in the learning process enhances our ability to enrich our personal lives, careers, and work in the global community.

Excellence. We value superior quality and are dedicated to continued improvement in all college programs and services. We practice an ongoing systematic planning and evaluation process to ensure that our programs and services are distinctive, relevant, responsive, and of the highest quality.

Sustainability. Walla Walla Community College values the well-being of our communities and is dedicated to protecting and restoring our resources. We will advocate for and demonstrate practices that promote economic and environmental sustainability.
