Supporting Parenting

The Coalition has selected three strategies that it believes will best drive towards the desired outcomes of the coalition over the next several years. The first strategy is:

Create neighborhood hubs connected to a community-wide effort that fosters relationship and trust.

To what degree does your organization's approach to supporting young children and their families align with this strategy?
Improving Early Learning Opportunities

The second strategy is:

Define and increase the availability of high-quality child care in the Walla Walla Valley.

To what degree does your organization's approach to supporting young children and their families align with this strategy?
Creating a Family-Friendly Community

The third strategy is:

Develop activities that create a feeling that Walla Walla Valley parents are honored and supported in their important role.

To what degree does your organization's approach to supporting young children and their families align with this strategy?
Collaboration Opportunities

What types of resources might your organization consider sharing or pooling in a coordinated effort that allows you to better meet the needs of children and families?
