New Instructor! Interested in writing your stories or has your family been begging you to tell the story of your life? Sharing written stories will jog memories and develop camaraderie with your fellow classmates. This interactive class will give you the tools to get started as a writer creating a memoir that will become a treasured legacy. Karen Alaniz, a published writer (memoir, essays, articles published in regional and national magazines) has a master's degree in education. Her memoir, “Breaking the Code: a Father’s Secret, a Daughter’s Journey, and the Question That Changed Everything” (Sourcebooks) was published in 2011. Tuesday, 1:30 – 3:30 PM October 8 - December 10, 2013 Senior Center 720 Sprague Walla Walla, WA 99362
Woodcarving

Woodcarving – A piece of wood, a carving knife, and a vision will allow you to create a relief carving of a parrot this quarter. Class is for both beginner and experienced carvers and is limited to 12 students. The wood is furnished but you need to bring your own filet glove and carving tools to class. Instructor permission is required for this class.
Mel Wheatley
