Automotive Repair Technology

The Industry

The ability to diagnose the source of a problem quickly and accurately requires good reasoning ability and a thorough knowledge of automobiles. Automotive service technicians inspect, maintain, and repair automobiles and light trucks that have gasoline engines. The increasing sophistication of automotive technology now requires workers who can use computerized shop equipment and work with electronic components while maintaining their skills with traditional hand tools.

Career Opportunities

- Automotive Repair
- Automotive Maintenance Shops
- Automobile Dealers
- Automotive Parts Retailers
- Automotive Parts Wholesalers

WWCC’s Degree Options

Associate in Applied Arts and Sciences (AAAS) Degree in Automotive Repair Technology is available upon completion of the second year of the program (1750 hours).

Automotive Repair Technology Certificate: available upon completion of one year of study.

For More Information

Jim Haun
(509) 527-4693
jim.haun@wwcc.edu
www.wwcc.edu/automechanics