

Sample board job description

Adapted from Great Boards for Small Groups
by Andy Robinson, Emerson and Church, 2006

What board members provide	What board members can expect in return
1. I will give my best effort to “hit the ground running” when beginning my service with the board.	1. The organization will provide me with a full orientation, including background information on work accomplished to date.
2. I will learn about the organization’s mission and programs, and be able to describe them accurately.	2. The organization will provide me with relevant materials and education.
3. I understand that the board meets ___ times per year, plus one annual full-day retreat. I will do my best to attend each meeting, with the understanding that three consecutive unexcused absences will be considered resignation from the board.	3. I expect that board meetings will be well run and productive, with a focus on decision-making and not merely reporting. I understand that agendas will be distributed at least one week in advance. If I wish to add items to the agenda, I will contact the chair at least two weeks in advance.
4. I accept fiduciary responsibility for the organization and will oversee its financial health and integrity.	4. I expect timely, accurate, and complete financial statements to be distributed at least quarterly, one week in advance of the relevant board meeting. I also expect to be trained to read and interpret these financial statements.
5. I will provide oversight to ensure that our programs run effectively.	5. I expect monthly reports from the executive director, program updates, press clippings, etc.
6. I accept ethical responsibility and will help to hold fellow board members and the executive director (and, by extension, the full staff) to professional standards.	6. The organization will provide me with relevant training.
7. I will serve as an ambassador to the community to educate others and promote our work.	7. I will need materials and may need training (public speaking, etc.) to do this job effectively.
8. I commit to increasing my skills as a board member.	8. The organization will provide me with appropriate training and support.
9. I will participate in fundraising to ensure that our organization has the resources it needs to meet its mission. I commit to making a personal donation; our organization will be one of the top three charities I support each year that I am on the board.	9. I will be able to choose from a range of fundraising activities, and I expect relevant training and support to help me fulfill my obligations. I will have the option of fulfilling my personal pledge in monthly or quarterly installments, if I so choose.
10. I will evaluate the performance of the executive director.	10. This evaluation will be based on goals developed jointly by the board and the E.D.
