

Hispanic Caucus – Summer Meeting

July 9th, 2019

Celebración de Graduación

- Maria and Jacky not in attendance – will have to do a future review when they are back on campus
- Concern about the show rate for students who indicated they planned to attend
- Food got cold – will need to consider chafing dishes in future.

Fall Meeting

- Holly will email Chad to see if it might be possible to include Fall meeting of Hispanic Caucus in Pre-Fall Conference schedule and to request to have a table for recruitment in Health Sciences lobby.

Thirsty Thursday – JULY 25th, 2019 at 3:00 pm

- Same theme as last year – members sign up to bring food from Hispanic/Latino countries and cultures.
- Titus Creek area is reserved
- Signup sheet for food and supplies will be shared with the Caucus
- We need someone to organize décor!
- Angelica will ask Ruben to organize music

Upcoming Events

- Hispanic Heritage Month, Sept 15 – Oct 15
 - We need a committee to plan for this event. Nadine is chairing this committee.
- Visit from Claudia Castro Luna – Holly emailed her and is waiting to hear back.
- Dia de los Muertos, Oct 31 – Nov 2
 - Collaborate with history students ? to create altar for historical individual
 - Have a community altar where students, faculty, and staff can put pics of their loved ones with posters explaining the history and significance of the altar and ofrendas
- Faculty and Staff of Color Conference (FSOCC), Oct 30 – Nov 1

Next meeting to be announced shortly – hoping for the week of September 9th.
