Policy: Delegation of Authority to President to Exempt Positions

Adopted: November 19, 2003

Delegation of Authority to President to Exempt Positions

The Board of Trustees of Walla Walla Community College delegates full authority to the President of Walla Walla Community College to exempt positions from provisions of RCW 41.06 as described and authorized in RCW 46.06.070(2); provided that all such action shall be taken within the framework of established Board policy, within the funds available, within the law, and the President shall report to the Board at each regular meeting and/or as requested by the Board of Trustees on such actions taken under this delegated authority.
