

Military Personnel

Active Duty Members Stationed in Washington

To apply for residency for tuition as active duty military members or as member's spouse or dependent, students must:

- Show proof of military duty and that they are stationed in Washington State.
- Provide Permanent Change of Station (PCS) orders.

Washington National Guard Members

To apply for residency for tuition as Washington National Guard members or as a member's spouse or dependent, students must:

- Show proof of military orders that show the date of you or your sponsor's assignment to Washington State.
- Show your military ID card.

Discharged Members

To apply as a discharged member, students must:

- Submit their DD-214 showing Washington as their place of entry (home of record) where orders are bound and date separated.
- Character of service must be "Honorable", box 24.
- Provide verification that they have returned to the state of Washington within 12 months of discharge.

Washington Members Stationed Elsewhere

To apply as members (or dependents) who are from Washington, but stationed in another state or overseas, students must:

- Provide documentation of their (or, the active duty military member's) home of record (L.E.S. Leave and Earnings Statement)
- Submit documentation that you are maintaining legal ties while being stationed elsewhere. You need at least three of the following:
  - Driver's license
  - Voter's registration
  - Vehicle registration
  - Bank account
  - Property ownership

If you qualify, please visit the Office of Admissions & Records.

