

Current Tutoring and Learning Center Tutoring Services:

The following services are provided by TLC tutoring staff. These services are available to all students for free, on a drop-in bases. More extensive one-on-one writing tutoring and support is also available for free by appointment. Located in room 244 Building D.

- Reading/Literacy support in all subjects
- Pre-college, college math (including Stats), and business math
- Physics
- Chemistry, Biology
- requisite math skills for Professional/Technical courses
- resources and study guides for placement exams
- support for English Language Learners (Spanish only) in multiple subjects
- tutoring and support for basic computer skills, including word processing and internet navigation
- MLA/APA citation styles and formatting
- Navigating Canvas, Pearson MyMathLabs, and other WWCC digital learning platforms
- Activating and Accessing NetID, WWCC Email, and Microsoft 365 account
- model study skills and habits for student success that increase independence and promote student efficacy as life-long learners
- One-on-one writing tutoring for assignments in all subject areas, including English, Sociology, Psychology, and Nursing
- How to properly cite sources and avoid plagiarism
- methods for brainstorming a topic, developing a thesis, and drafting an essay
- revising an essay with reader/tutor feedback
- understanding and applying feedback from instructors to revise an essay
- One-on-one writing support for academic and professional writing projects, such as transfer application essays, scholarship essays, internship or job applications, or resumes
- Limited online tutoring for English and Statistics

Resources:

The following resources are available for student and tutor use within the Tutoring and Learning Center:

- pre-college math exam banks for extra practice
- resource library that includes textbooks, dictionaries, reference books, style guides
- disarticulated skeleton and organ models for anatomy and physiology
- headphones
- microscopes and histology slides
- molecular model sets
- test slides available by request
- scientific calculators
- Z tables for Statistics
- Printing
- Stapler, hole punch, pencil sharpener
- 16 computer work stations with variable desk height for accessibility
- Large tables for study groups
- 2 white boards for study group use
- Study guides for Biology, Chemistry, Spanish

